Action Pack 12 - Detailed Grammar Summary

This is the corrected version. Each grammar point includes use, structure, clues, examples, and common mistakes. It follows the grammar sequence from the Student's Book and the Activity Book grammar notes.

Unit 1 - Present Simple

Use: Present facts, general truths, routines, habits, and fixed/scheduled future events.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + base verb / verb+s/es
- Negative: Subject + do/does not + base verb
- Question: Do/Does + subject + base verb?

Common clues: always, usually, often, sometimes, never, every day, on Mondays, generally, facts, timetables

Examples:

- Students use computers at school.
- The Earth goes round the Sun.
- The train leaves at eight tomorrow morning.
- She does not use social media at night.
- Do you study English every day?

Watch out:

- Do not add s after does: She does not uses -> She does not use.
- Use the base verb after do/does.

Unit 1 - Present Continuous

Use: Actions happening now, temporary situations, repeated present actions with always, and arranged future plans.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + am/is/are + verb-ing
- Negative: Subject + am/is/are not + verb-ing
- Question: Am/Is/Are + subject + verb-ing?

Common clues: now, at the moment, currently, today, this week, always for repeated annoying actions, future arrangement context

Examples:

- I am writing an email now.
- She is staying in Irbid for a few months.
- They are always asking the same question.
- We are meeting our teacher tomorrow.
- Are you using the tablet now?

Watch out:

- Do not use it for permanent facts: I am living in Jordan forever -> I live in Jordan.
- Remember be before verb-ing.

Unit 1 - Present Perfect

Use: Past action connected to now: life experience, recent result, unfinished time period, or a state continuing until now.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + have/has + past participle
- Negative: Subject + have/has not + past participle
- Question: Have/Has + subject + past participle?

Common clues: already, yet, just, ever, never, since, for, today, this week, recently, so far

Examples:

- I have finished my homework.
- She has lived in Amman for six years.
- Have you ever used a smart watch?
- They have not completed the project yet.
- He has lost his keys, so he cannot enter the house.

Watch out:

- Do not use finished past markers with it: I have visited Aqaba yesterday -> I visited Aqaba yesterday.
- Use has with he/she/it.

Unit 1 - Present Perfect Continuous

Use: An action that started in the past and continues now, repeated activity until now, or a recently finished long action with a visible result.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + have/has been + verb-ing
- Negative: Subject + have/has not been + verb-ing
- Question: Have/Has + subject + been + verb-ing?

Common clues: since, for, all day, lately, recently, how long

Examples:

- I have been studying English for two hours.
- She has been working on the website since morning.
- They have been using tablets in class recently.
- Have you been revising all day?
- He is tired because he has been running.

Watch out:

- Use since for starting point and for for duration.
- Do not remove been: I have studying -> I have been studying.

Unit 1 - Past Simple

Use: Finished past actions, past routines, and past states over a completed time period.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + past verb
- Negative: Subject + did not + base verb
- Question: Did + subject + base verb?

Common clues: yesterday, last week, ago, in 2010, when I was young, once, then

Examples:

- The first smartphone appeared in 2007.
- I visited the museum yesterday.
- They did not buy a new laptop last year.
- Did you watch the programme last night?
- When I was younger, I played computer games every day.

Watch out:

- After did, use base verb: Did you went? -> Did you go?
- Regular verbs take -ed, but many common verbs are irregular.

Unit 1 - Past Continuous

Use: An action in progress around a past moment, background action interrupted by another action, or a long activity in the past.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + was/were + verb-ing
- Negative: Subject + was/were not + verb-ing
- Question: Was/Were + subject + verb-ing?

Common clues: while, when, at 7 p.m. yesterday, all morning, as

Examples:

- I was writing an email when the laptop switched off.
- They were studying while their father was working.
- At nine o'clock, she was preparing her presentation.
- Were you using the computer when I called?
- He was not listening during the lesson.

Watch out:

- Use past simple for the interrupting action: I was walking when it rained started -> when it started to rain.

Unit 1 - Past Perfect

Use: The earlier action before another past action or specific past moment.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + had + past participle
- Negative: Subject + had not + past participle
- Question: Had + subject + past participle?

Common clues: before, after, by the time, already, when + later past action

Examples:

- Mohammad had checked his emails before he started work.
- By the time we arrived, the lesson had begun.
- She had not saved the file, so she lost her work.
- Had they finished the project before the deadline?
- I understood the problem after the teacher had explained it.

Watch out:

- Use it only when you need to show which past action happened first.

Unit 1 - Future with will

Use: Predictions without clear evidence, spontaneous decisions, promises, hopes, and opinions about the future.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + will + base verb
- Negative: Subject + will not/won't + base verb
- Question: Will + subject + base verb?

Common clues: I think, I hope, probably, maybe, perhaps, one day, future prediction without evidence

Examples:

- I think technology will change education.
- Maybe people will use smaller computers in the future.
- I will help you with your homework.
- They won't finish the report tonight.
- Will students use books in fifty years?

Watch out:

- Do not use will + to: will to study -> will study.

Unit 1 - Future with going to Use: Future plans/intentions and predictions based on present evidence.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + am/is/are going to + base verb
- Negative: Subject + am/is/are not going to + base verb
- Question: Am/Is/Are + subject + going to + base verb?

Common clues: plan, intention, look at..., evidence now, already decided

Examples:

- I am going to create a school website.
- Look at the clouds. It is going to rain.
- They are not going to buy a new tablet this month.
- Are you going to study medicine?
- She is going to present her project tomorrow.

Watch out:

- Use be before going to.

Unit 1 - Present Simple Passive

Use: When the action is more important than the doer in the present.

Structure:

- Subject + am/is/are + past participle
- Optional agent: by + doer

Common clues: processes, facts, general statements, unknown/unimportant doer

Examples:

- Smartphones are sold around the world.
- English is spoken in many countries.
- The website is updated every week.
- The files are not saved automatically.
- Is Arabic taught at your school?

Watch out:

- Passive needs be + past participle: Smartphones sold -> Smartphones are sold.

Unit 1 - Past Simple Passive

Use: When the action is more important than the doer in the past.

Structure:

- Subject + was/were + past participle
- Optional agent: by + doer

Common clues: past inventions, historical facts, completed past actions

Examples:

- The first PC was produced in 1974.
- The computer chip was developed in 1958.
- The emails were sent yesterday.
- The old building was not repaired.
- When was the first smartphone invented?

Watch out:

- Use was/were according to the subject, not the agent.

Unit 1 - Reported Speech

Use: Reporting what someone said without quoting the exact words. Tenses usually move one step back. Pronouns and time words often change.

Structure:

- Reporting clause + that + reported clause
- said + statement
- told + object + statement

Common clues: said, told, explained, reported, claimed

Examples:

- Direct: "I use a laptop." -> Reported: He said that he used a laptop.
- Direct: "I am studying." -> Reported: She said that she was studying.
- Direct: "I have finished." -> Reported: He said that he had finished.
- Direct: "I bought a tablet." -> Reported: She said that she had bought a tablet.
- Direct: "We will help." -> Reported: They said that they would help.

Watch out:

- Do not use told without an object: He told that... -> He said that... / He told me that...
- Past perfect usually stays past perfect.

Unit 2 - be used to

Use: Something is familiar or normal for someone now.

Structure:

- Subject + am/is/are + used to + noun/pronoun/verb-ing
- Past: Subject + was/were + used to + noun/verb-ing

Common clues: familiar now, accustomed to, no longer strange

Examples:

- I am used to studying late.
- She is used to speaking English every day.
- They are used to the traffic in the city.
- He was not used to getting up early.
- Are you used to online learning?

Watch out:

- After be used to, use verb-ing, not infinitive: used to study -> used to studying.

Unit 2 - used to

Use: A past habit or past state that is not true now.

Structure:

- Affirmative: Subject + used to + base verb
- Negative: Subject + did not use to + base verb
- Question: Did + subject + use to + base verb?

Common clues: in the past, when I was younger, but now, these days

Examples:

- I used to watch cartoons, but now I watch documentaries.
- She used to be a teacher, but now she is retired.
- They did not use to have smartphones.
- Did you use to play outside every day?
- My father used to walk to school.

Watch out:

- In questions/negatives, use use to after did: Did you used to -> Did you use to.

Unit 2 - Past Perfect Continuous

Use: A longer action that had been happening up to a specific past moment. Often explains a past result.

Structure:

- Subject + had been + verb-ing

Common clues: for, since, by the time, before, looked tired/hot/wet because

Examples:

- I had been running for half an hour when I saw you.
- By the time the bus arrived, we had been waiting for an hour.
- She was tired because she had been cooking all afternoon.
- Had you been studying before your friend called?
- They had not been sleeping well before the exam.

Watch out:

- Past perfect continuous focuses on duration before a past point; past perfect simple focuses on completion.

Unit 3 - Future Continuous

Use: An action that will be in progress at a specific time in the future.

Structure:

- Subject + will be + verb-ing

Common clues: this time tomorrow, at 8 p.m. next week, in ten years' time, during future time

Examples:

- This time next year, I will be preparing for my final exams.
- At eight tonight, she will be studying biology.
- What will you be doing in ten years?
- They will not be working during the holiday.
- Will you be attending the lecture tomorrow?

Watch out:

- Use will be + verb-ing, not will + verb-ing.

Unit 3 - Future Perfect

Use: An action completed before a specific future time.

Structure:

- Subject + will have + past participle

Common clues: by, by the time, before + future point, by 2030

Examples:

- By 2030, scientists will have developed better medical robots.
- By the time we arrive, the train will have left.
- She will have finished the report before noon.
- They will not have completed the project by Monday.
- Will you have graduated by next year?

Watch out:

- Use by + future deadline, not at + duration.

Unit 4 - Cleft Sentences

Use: Emphasizing one part of the sentence: person, thing, time, place, or reason.

Structure:

- The person who + clause + be + emphasized person
- The thing that + clause + be + emphasized thing
- The place where + clause + be + emphasized place
- It + be + emphasized part + that/who + clause

Common clues: emphasis, correction, focus on one part of information

Examples:

- Huda won the prize last year. -> The person who won the prize last year was Huda.
- Huda won the art prize. -> The prize that Huda won was the art prize.
- The Olympic Games were held in London in 2012. -> It was in London that the Olympic Games were held in 2012.
- I like the way he explains ideas. -> The thing that I like is the way he explains ideas.
- The place where we met was the library.

Watch out:

- Do not change the original meaning; only move the emphasized information.

Unit 4 - Defining Relative Clauses

Use: Identifying exactly which person, thing, place, or time we mean. Essential information.

Structure:

- Person: noun + who/that + clause
- Thing/animal: noun + which/that + clause
- Place: noun + where + clause
- Time: noun + when + clause

Common clues: necessary information, no commas

Examples:

- The scientist who invented this device was famous.
- The book that I borrowed is useful.
- This is the school where I studied.
- Friday is the day when we usually meet.
- The person I called did not answer.

Watch out:

- Do not use commas for defining clauses.
- The relative pronoun can sometimes be omitted when it is the object, not the subject.

Unit 4 - Non-defining Relative Clauses

Use: Adding extra information about a known noun. The sentence still makes sense without it.

Structure:

- Known noun, who/which/where/when + extra information, rest of sentence

Common clues: extra information, commas, proper names

Examples:

- Jabir ibn Hayyan, who was a famous scientist, contributed to chemistry.
- The Sahara Desert, which is in Africa, is very hot.
- Amman, where many students live, has several universities.
- The exam, which was difficult, lasted two hours.
- Our teacher, who speaks English well, helped us.

Watch out:

- Do not omit the relative pronoun in non-defining clauses.
- Use commas around the extra information.

Unit 5 - Articles: a/an, the, zero article

Use: Choosing whether a noun needs an indefinite article, definite article, or no article.

Structure:

- a/an + singular countable noun mentioned for the first time
- the + known/specific/unique noun or superlative
- zero article + general plural/uncountable nouns, most countries/languages/continents/days/months/years

Common clues: first mention vs known thing, general vs specific, unique objects, superlatives

Examples:

- I saw a student in the library. The student was reading a book.
- The Sun gives us light.
- Children usually like sweets.
- Arabic is spoken in Jordan.
- The longest river in Egypt is the Nile.

Watch out:

- Do not use a/an with plural or uncountable nouns: a information -> information.
- Use the when the listener knows exactly which thing you mean.

Unit 5 - British English vs American English

Use: Recognizing common grammar and spelling differences between British and American English.

Structure:

- BE often uses present perfect where AE may use past simple
- AE: gotten; BE: got
- AE: have for possession; BE: have got

Common clues: yet/already with past simple in AE, spelling differences like color/colour, center/centre

Examples:

- BE: Have you seen that film yet? / AE: Did you see that film yet?
- BE: He has got a sister. / AE: He has a sister.
- BE: colour, centre, favourite. / AE: color, center, favorite.
- BE: He had got some ice cream. / AE: He had gotten some ice cream.

Watch out:

- Do not mix spelling systems randomly inside formal writing.

Unit 6 - Quantifiers and Comparisons

Use: Comparing adjectives, adverbs, quantities, and numbers.

Structure:

- more/less + adjective/adverb + than
- as + adjective/adverb + as
- the most/least + adjective/adverb
- as much + uncountable noun + as
- as many + plural countable noun + as

Common clues: compare two things, compare quantities, most/least among a group

Examples:

- Science is more interesting than history.
- Maths is not as popular as English.
- This course is the most useful option.
- There are not as many students in our class as in yours.
- I do not eat as much fast food as my brother.

Watch out:

- Use many with countable plural nouns and much with uncountable nouns.

Unit 7 - Indirect Questions

Use: Polite or formal questions using statement word order.

Structure:

- Question opener + wh-word + subject + verb?
- Question opener + if/whether + subject + verb?
- Openers: Could you tell me..., Do you know..., Do you mind telling me..., Could you explain...

Common clues: polite request, formal situation, not direct question order

Examples:

- Direct: Where is the library? -> Could you tell me where the library is?
- Direct: Is there a bank near here? -> Do you know if there is a bank near here?
- Direct: Why is the train late? -> Do you mind telling me why the train is late?
- Direct: How did you solve it? -> Could you explain how you solved it?

Watch out:

- Do not use question word order after the opener: Do you know where is the library? -> where the library is.

Unit 7 - Impersonal Passive

Use: Formal reporting of beliefs, claims, thoughts, and opinions. Common in academic/report writing.

Structure:

- It + passive reporting verb + that + clause
- Subject + passive reporting verb + to + infinitive
- Reporting verbs: said, thought, believed, claimed, known

Common clues: formal tone, people say/think/believe/claim/know

Examples:

- People believe that dolphins are intelligent. -> It is believed that dolphins are intelligent.
- They say that the story is true. -> The story is said to be true.
- People know that he is talented. -> He is known to be talented.
- They claim that the method works. -> It is claimed that the method works.

Watch out:

- Match infinitive form to time: is believed to be / is believed to have been.

Unit 8 - Phrasal Verbs

Use: A verb plus one or two particles with a specific meaning. Some take objects, some do not, and some are separable.

Structure:

- Verb + particle
- Verb + particle + object
- Verb + object + particle for separable verbs
- Verb + particle + particle + object for three-part phrasal verbs

Common clues: carry out, look into, come up with, grow up, get on, point out

Examples:

- The candidates carried out a short task.
- We are looking into the problem.
- She grew up in Aqaba.
- Please point the mistake out. / Please point it out.
- They came up with a good idea.

Watch out:

- Object pronouns go before the particle in separable phrasal verbs: point it out, not point out it.

Unit 8 - Question Tags

Use: Checking or confirming information after a statement.

Structure:

- Positive statement + negative tag
- Negative statement + positive tag
- Use the same auxiliary/modal; if there is no auxiliary, use do/does/did
- Let's + verb, shall we?

Common clues: ..., isn't it? ..., do you? ..., haven't they? ..., shall we?

Examples:

- You have read this book, haven't you?
- She does not speak French, does she?
- They can help us, can't they?
- He lives in Wadi Musa, doesn't he?
- Let's go to the library, shall we?

Watch out:

- Match tense and auxiliary. Do not use "isn't it" for every sentence.

Unit 8 - Passive Forms Revision

Use: When the subject receives the action or the doer is unknown/unimportant.

Structure:

- Basic passive: subject + be + past participle
- Present simple: am/is/are + past participle
- Past simple: was/were + past participle
- Present perfect: have/has been + past participle
- Future: will be + past participle
- Modal: modal + be + past participle

Common clues: by + agent, official/formal style, processes, reports, inventions

Examples:

- The competition is held every year.
- Many important things were invented in the twentieth century.
- The school has been renovated recently.
- The project will be completed before the deadline.
- This problem can be solved easily.

Watch out:

- The tense is shown by be, not by the main verb. Main verb must be past participle.

Unit 9 - Wish / If only for Past Regrets

Use: Regret about something that happened or did not happen in the past.

Structure:

- Subject + wish/if only + subject + had/hadn't + past participle

Common clues: regret, past mistake, too late to change, should have feeling

Examples:

- I wish I had studied harder for the exam.
- If only we had caught the earlier bus.
- She wishes she had not bought those shoes.
- I wish I had saved the file before the computer crashed.

Watch out:

- Use past perfect after wish for past regrets, not past simple.

Unit 9 - Wish / If only for Present Wishes

Use: Wishes about the present that are impossible or unlikely now.

Structure:

- Subject + wish/if only + subject + past simple
- With be: was/were; were is common in formal English

Common clues: present dissatisfaction, impossible/unlikely now

Examples:

- I wish I knew the answer.
- If only we lived in a bigger flat.
- He wishes he were taller.
- I wish I had more free time.

Watch out:

- Although the meaning is present, the form after wish is past simple.

Unit 10 - Zero Conditional

Use: Facts, rules, and inevitable results.

Structure:

- If + present simple, present simple
- Present simple + if + present simple

Common clues: always true, scientific facts, general results

Examples:

- If plants do not get enough sunlight, they die.
- Water turns to ice if the temperature falls below zero.
- If students revise regularly, they remember more.
- If you press this button, the screen turns on.

Watch out:

- Do not use will in the result for zero conditional facts.

Unit 10 - First Conditional

Use: Real possible future situations and their likely results.

Structure:

- If + present simple, will + base verb
- will + base verb + if + present simple
- Alternatives to if: provided that, as long as, unless, when, even if

Common clues: real future possibility, promise, warning, plan result

Examples:

- If you get an interview, you will need to prepare well.
- I will buy the book if it is not too expensive.
- Unless you revise, you will forget the rules.
- Even if the course is difficult, I will continue.
- When I finish school, I will apply for university.

Watch out:

- Do not use will in the if-clause: If I will pass -> If I pass.

Unit 10 - Third Conditional

Use: Imaginary past situation and imaginary past result; something did not happen.

Structure:

- If + past perfect, would have + past participle
- would have + past participle + if + past perfect

Common clues: past regret, impossible past, imaginary result

Examples:

- If I had studied harder, I would have passed the exam.
- I would not have gone to the library if my friend had not invited me.
- If we had left earlier, we would have arrived on time.
- She would have got the job if she had prepared better.

Watch out:

- Both parts refer to the past, but the structure is past perfect + would have.

Unit 10 - Third Conditional with could/might

Use: Imaginary past result with less certainty or ability/possibility.

Structure:

- If + past perfect, could/might have + past participle

Common clues: possible but not certain result, ability in imaginary past

Examples:

- If I had prepared better, I might have won first prize.
- If I had slept well, I could have concentrated better.
- They might have become champions if they had trained harder.
- If I had chosen another school, I might not have studied French.

Watch out:

- Use might have/could have when the result is possible, not certain.

Unit 10 - Second Conditional Revision

Use: Imaginary or unlikely present/future situations.

Structure:

- If + past simple, would + base verb
- would + base verb + if + past simple

Common clues: imaginary now, unlikely future, advice with if I were you

Examples:

- If I were in London, I would visit the British Museum.
- If I had more time, I would learn another language.
- She would apply for the job if she had enough experience.
- If I were you, I would revise every day.

Watch out:

- Use past simple after if, but the meaning is present/future.

Action Pack 12 - Writing Guide

Discursive essay

Discuss both sides. Use contrast and consequence linkers: however, whereas, on the one hand, on the other hand, therefore, as a result.

Report

Use factual tone, title, introduction, findings, conclusion/recommendations. Useful openings: The aim of this report is to..., This report examines...

Descriptive essay

Describe a person, place, invention, future situation, or event with organized details. Use clear paragraphs and precise adjectives.

Summary

Keep main ideas only. Remove examples, repeated ideas, and minor details. Do not add opinion.

Argumentative essay

Take a clear position. Give reasons, examples, counterargument, and conclusion. Arrange arguments logically.

Blog post

More personal than an essay, but still organized. Use a clear topic, personal opinion, and direct reader-friendly style.

Persuasive letter

State the problem, explain consequences, propose solution, and request action politely.

Competition entry

Answer the prompt exactly. Use engaging language and clear reasons.

Review

Describe the event/place/book/service, evaluate positives and negatives, then give a recommendation.

CV and covering letter

CV: personal details, education, experience, skills, references. Covering letter: job applied for, why you fit, relevant experience, polite closing.
